MOHAMED NASHEED

LEADER

DHIVEHI RAYYITUNGE PARTY

A Biography

Honorable Mohamed Nasheed was born on 19th March 1977 in the capital city of Male' to Middle class family. He completed his secondary education in one of the most prestigious schools in the Maldives, Majeedhiyya School. Later, Hon. Nasheed joined the Centre for Higher Secondary Education where he completed his Advanced Level. Hon. Nasheed is a well-known scholar of the native Dhivehi Language. His dedicated services to the Nation, is acknowledged by many. While his literary works are widely published, he is also renowned for his remarkable oratory skills. Hon. Nasheed is regarded as a Lecturer of History and Archeology in the Maldives, especially in the field of the Arian studies.

After completing his education, Hon. Nasheed commenced his services in the armed forces of the Maldives at a very young age. During the era when political awareness peaked in the Maldives, Hon. Nasheed has been a vocal revolutionary leader, which paved the way for his Parliament seat in the constitutional assembly to represent the capital of Maldives, Male' in a landslide victory. At that time he was the youngest Member of the Parliament.

During this period of limited freedom of expression, both Hon. Nasheed's writing and oratory skills played a significant role in creating awareness among people. The 'koadhu' (the new beginning) column in the Minivan Newspaper, written by Hon. Nasheed, was rated as the most read column in the history of Maldives. His lifelong dedicated literary works were acknowledged by the President of the Maldives, when he was awarded the National Service Award in 2011.

After completing his Bachelor of Arts Linguistics Degree in the University of Maldives, Hon. Nasheed changed his profession to teaching. He became a beloved and popular teacher among the students as well as his colleagues.

However, in the change of events, Hon. Nasheed later became a full time politician and an active member of the Maldivian Democratic Party, who played a major role in leading the party to its present glory. In 2008, Hon. Nasheed joined the President's Office as a Secretary to the Political Affairs Division. While serving in this position, he was elected to the Parliament to represent Nohivaram constituency in 2009.
